

“A,” “An” or Nothing?

Write an “a” or “an” in the sentences that need them. Put a check (✓) by the sentences that do not need an article.

George worked here yesterday for _____ hour.

She is _____ attractive girl.

He drank _____ cup of coffee while he read the newspaper.

Do you like _____ apples?

There's _____ apartment building on the corner.

It's _____ beautiful day.

The young boy was not wearing _____ clothes.

My mother is at _____ our house.

I have _____ noisy neighbors.

They have been playing _____ cards all afternoon.

The boys played _____ baseball yesterday afternoon.

What _____ language do you speak best?

Kenji is studying _____ English.

I have _____ money.

Are you _____ busy?

This wine is _____ expensive.

Are these your _____ shoes?

Is there _____ big window in your kitchen?

She is wearing _____ sunglasses.

Is Robert _____ thin?

He lives in _____ Alaska.