

SlangQuest

- ◆ Go to the following Web site: <http://www.manythings.org/slang/>.
- ◆ Find at least five slang terms that you can use at work. Go to any page—you do not have to look in alphabetical order.
- ◆ Copy and paste each new word into a word processing document. Your page will look like this:

awesome

What an awesome sunset.

beat

After working all day I am really beat.

break

A lucky break helped him get the job.

- ◆ Print your word processing document and keep it in your notebook.
- ◆ Write one long dialogue or two short dialogues using at least two of your new slang words.

SlangQuest

- ◆ Go to the following Web site: <http://www.manythings.org/slang/>.
- ◆ Find at least five slang terms that you can use at work. Go to any page—you do not have to look in alphabetical order.
- ◆ Copy and paste each new word into a word processing document. Your page will look like this:

awesome

What an awesome sunset.

beat

After working all day I am really beat.

break

A lucky break helped him get the job.

- ◆ Print your word processing document and keep it in your notebook.
- ◆ Write one long dialogue or two short dialogues using at least two of your new slang words.